Our purpose for processing and collecting your data.

We gather data to identify you, including your contact information, your financial details/financial circumstances, your employment, your marital status and special categories of data such as personal health questions;

We collect your data for the following reasons;

- To assess suitability and where relevant to provide you with a recommendation for Pension, Investment, Financial Advice, Service or Product.
- To provide the requested services or products to you.
- To complete application forms and fulfill requirements of any company providing a service(s) or product(s) we are recommending to you.
- To continue to provide and/or renew existing services or products that are suitable to you.

Why we are processing your data?

Our legal basis.

In order for us to provide any Pension, Investment, Financial Advice, Service or Product, we need to collect personal data. Our reason (lawful reason) for processing your data under the GDPR is:

- Legal basis – We need to process your data as this is necessary in relation to any Pension, Investment, Financial Advice, Service or Product, to which any individual has entered into or because the individual has asked for something to be done so they can enter into a contract.
- Regulation/Compliance basis – to offer any level of advice or service we must comply with our regulator the Central Bank of Ireland and that requires us to complete a full client Fact Find/Client questionnaire/Risk Questionnaire so that we can satisfy our regulators ‘Know your Client’ requirements.

We are committed to ensuring that the information we collect and use is appropriate for this purpose, and does not constitute an invasion of your privacy.

How will we use the personal data we collect about you?

We will process (collect, store and use) the information you provide in a manner compatible with the EU’s General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). We will endeavour to keep your information accurate and up to date, and not keep it for longer than our company considers it necessary.

Special Categories of personal data

If we collect any special categories of personal data (e.g. health, religious beliefs, racial, ethnic origin – financial information is not classified as special categories of personal data) – we will ensure that we will obtain your explicit consent.

Who are we sharing your data with?

As part of providing our service to you we often are required to pass your personal data on to third-party service providers contracted to us in the course of dealing with you (e.g. obtaining a personalised illustration). Any third parties that we may share your data with are obliged to keep your details securely, and to use them only to fulfil the service they provide on your behalf. When they no longer need your data to fulfil this service, they will dispose of the details in line with Data Protection procedures.

If we wish to pass your sensitive personal data onto a third party we will only do so once we have obtained your explicit consent, unless we are legally required to do otherwise.

The third parties that we may pass your personal data to, in the normal course of business as set out above, are (link provided for that companies Privacy Notice where available):
